

Advertisement

NEWS

Online workshop: Storyworlds in Collections. Toward a Theory of the Ancient and Byzantine Tale

Medievalists Membership

Become a member to get ad-free access to our website and our articles. Thank you for supporting our website!

SIGN UP

MEMBER LOGIN

The University of Cyprus is hosting an online workshop next month. Storyworlds in Collections: Toward a Theory of the Ancient and Byzantine Tale (2nd – 7th c. CE) will run on Zoom on December 4th and 5th.

Papers to be given during this workshop include:

Stavroula Constantinou and Andria Andreou: The Voice of the Tale: Storyteller in Miracle Collections and Collections of Edifying Tales

Marina Detoraki: The Beneficial Tales of Sozomenos' Ecclesiastical History

Julia Doroszewska: La Vertigine della lista: Comparing the Poetics of Ancient Paradoxographical and Miracle Collection

Christina Hadjiafrenti: Encounters Between Monks and Demons in Edifying Tales (4th-7th c.)

Christian Høgel: Telling a Thaumata in Greek Hagiography and Paradoxography

Markéta Kuhlankova: Space in Edifying Stories: The Case of Anastasios Sinaites

Ingela Nilsson: “To Render Unbelievable Tales Believable”: Paradoxographical Features in the Storyworlds of Novels and Miracle Tales

Manolis Patedakis: How to Talk About God: The Use of Sensual Materials in Rendering the Dissimilar Divine

Luigi Silvano: At the Origins of the Byzantine Narratives of the Other World

You can sign up for the workshop by clicking here

Click here to download the conference flyer

Advertisement

REMOVE ADS

Medieval Warfare

Use the code MEDIEVALIST-WEB for 25% off a subscription to Medieval Warfare magazine.

Advertisement

REMOVE ADS

Subscribe to Medievalverse

Email address

First name

Last name

I consent to receiving your weekly newsletter via email.

SUBSCRIBE

Powered by EmailOctopus

TAGS • BYZANTIUM • CONFERENCES

PREVIOUS POST

NEXT POST

Our Videos

Advertisement

REMOVE ADS

Related

Byzantine art exhibition now open in Chicago
October 15, 2014

The Middle Ages in Penguin Classics: 10 Little-Known Gems
August 15, 2020

Medieval News Archive for November 2009

Here are the News items posted on our Medieval News Blog in November 2009
Victoria & Albert Museum unveils its Medieval and Renaissance Galleries Virtual Medieval Cathedral created Congratulations Sandra!
January 5, 2010

Two medieval textile exhibitions open in Washington D.C.
September 13, 2019

PATREON

We've created a Patreon for Medievalists.net as we want to transition to a more community-funded model.

We aim to be the leading content provider about all things medieval. Our website, podcast and Youtube page offers news and resources about the Middle Ages. We hope that are our audience wants to support us so that we can further develop our podcast, hire more writers, build more content, and remove the advertising on our platforms. This will also allow our fans to get more involved in what content we do produce.

BECOME A PATRON

MEMBER LOGIN